H. S. PLAYERS
ENJOY FEED

After the Tonopah Legion basketball team was handed a defeat by the husky Legion team from Bishop, a prominent business man and athletic fan of Tonopah promised the high school team a "feed" if they would show some real speed on the following evening and throw a genuine scare into the big Legioners from Bishop. The high school lads did their best by prancing away with the big end of a 35-26 score, and last night the business man more than made good his promise by taking the only boys' team, but the girls team, their coaches, Superintendent and Mrs. Dill, as his guests at a theatre box first and from there to the Sweet Shop where they were treated until even Joe Cream candy failed to inspire further desire for sweets. It was a glorious going to a fine basketball season and the young people appreciated the kindness shown them.

VIOLA DANA AT THE BUTLER TODAY

"Cinderella's Twin," the Metro special production which comes to the Butler today, has the double distinction of having been written by the well-known author, Luther Reed, and scenarized by him. It has been described by a critic who saw it as "a wonderful picture having the Cinderella motive with a satisfying seasoning of lambent humor, whimsicality, charm and thrilling romance."

Viola has the star role of the little queen of the kitchen who ac-accidentally finds herself gazing on the Prince Charming of her day dreams. The scullery maid is whisked into a dazzling party by a gang of notorious jewel thieves, as their catapaw. She drops a slipper containing the key to a safe and brings on the catastrophe. As in the tale of the original Cinderella, so in the screen romance, it is necessary to fit the slipper to just that fraction of a hair that permits the wearer to spill it into the path of the oncoming Prince Charming at the psychological moment. This is one of the climaxes of the picture. Added to the feature will be Johnny Hinds in a two-reel comedy, "Torchy in High."
